

English

Non- Fiction

Persuasive Writing and News reports

Fiction

Narrative with emotion and Narrative that builds tension

Grammar:

Revision of all key areas with focus on connectives, and varied sentence types and manipulating sentence structure and order.

Magna Carta

Maths

Time and Dates
Consolidation of the 4 operations
Problem Solving Skills
3D Shape and their properties
Area and Perimeter
Averages
Mental Strategies

History

Learn about significant events in history and the lives of significant individuals.
Link historical events with our locality.
Understand how events from the past have contributed to modern day and how those events have impacted around the world over time.

PE

Athletics
Cycling Tour of Britain – research and understanding of a healthy lifestyle and training regime

Science

Forces and Magnets: surfaces and movement / magnetic forces / effect of air and water resistance.

Chemistry:

Materials and their changes / basis of property / Solutions and recovering solutions / Solids, liquids and gases.

Biology:

Evolution and Inheritance: changes over time / adaptation to environments.

Computing

Use technology to purposefully create, organise, store and manipulate digital content.
To recognise common uses of information technology beyond the realms of school.
To use technology safely and responsibly.

Geography

The children have learnt about latitude and longitude and the different climactic zones of our planet.
They have considered how our locality is similar and different to places around the world.
They have used grid references to map out and cross-reference sites on maps and in creating maps.
Used aerial photography to understand how the physical landscape can change over time due to both human and physical geography.